

Professor Shan-Tung Tu

Academician of Chinese Academy of Engineering and Former Vice President of East China University of Science and Technology

Shan-Tung Tu received his Ph.D degree in 1988 from Nanjing Tech University. He is a Chair professor of Mechanical Engineering, East China University of Science and Technology. Prior to this, he has worked in Nanjing Tech University and East China University of Science and Technology as a professor and vice present, and a guest scientist to Royal Institute of Technology, Sweden. Professor Tu has long devoted to developing knowledge in the area of high temperature structural integrity and engineering. He is also known as an advocator of total engineering education. He was elected as an academician of Chinese Academy of Engineering in 2019.