

Learning Outcomes

ELITE Global Talent Programme will be able to develop learners with a range of global attributes, innovative thinking, strategic thinking and different sets of entrepreneurship and employability skills at different stage of the studies. The programme learning outcome matrix are shown as below:

	Learning Outcome for different levels of learners
	Undergraduate	Postgraduate	Doctoral	Professionals
Attributes & Skills
Global mindset	Understanding West and East; South and North; understanding different political, economic, culture and technological development and ideologies	Interpret differences between West and East; South and North; Analyse the key factors impact on global mindsets including different political ideologies, economic development and histories.	Critically discuss the differences between West and East; South and North; The divergent and convergent of different economical and political ideologies and its impact to global peace.	Appreciate the differences between West and East; South and North; Apply the global mindset and philosophies in workplace and contribute to organizations development
Global Citizen	Understanding the importance of being a global citizen	Identify the set of skills and activities to become a global citizen
Global Researchers	Understanding the importance of global thinking, learning and researching	Developing problem solving skills using global mindset and global vision	Applying multidisciplinary skills in the development of global citizenship and becoming a responsible and ethical global researcher

Global practitioners	Understand the importance of implementation of theory and apply learnings in day to day life to support personal development	Apply theory in practice and reflect on the limitations of theory and the continuations of making enquires and searching solutions as result of practice.	Appreciation of the contributions of global practitioners in driving change and the interactions between theory and practice; Continuing reflections on practice and new theory building	Becoming global practitioners with global mindsets in workplace and adaptive to different workplace through innovative and entrepreneurial thinking
Global Innovators and Entrepreneurs	Understanding and appreciation the importance of innovation and creativity in creating the future self and workplace	Applying the theories of global innovation and entrepreneurship in work and learning	Applying the concept of global innovation and entrepreneurship in professional research and embracing global philosophies and different thinking	Practicing global innovation and entrepreneurship in workplace through the establishment of global communities and global networks
Global Leaders	Understanding and appreciation the meaning of a leader and leading self	Developing self as a competent global leader through continuous reflection and practice in both work and learning.	Develop self as a global leading researcher through continuous reflection on global mindset and philosophies	Develop self as a responsible and ethical global leaders through continuous reflection on global issues, global mindsets and global practice